INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGE ALUMNI

Inspire. Empower. Connect.

Hello Alumni,

We're excited to announce an upcoming #MentorTalks episode, as well as a Career Connections FSO session and Alumni TIES session. Read on for more details...

Ugly Food & Data-Driven Strategies

Join us December 15th at 1pm ET for our next MentorTalks episode when we talk to Ranía Renno, author of Hungrily Homemade, on Facebook at @internationalexchangealumni.

We'll discuss Ranía's career as an entrepreneur and founder of Hungrily Homemade, as well as her experience in digital marketing and data-driven strategy. In this episode, Ranía will guide us through her culinary journey while offering insight into how her professional path has helped her to "own" her brand.

Alumni TIES TechCamp Reconnect Session

Advancing Digital Citizenship through Media Literacy

Are you looking to make a difference in your community? If so, apply for the upcoming Alumni TIES TechCamp Reconnect seminar March 15-26, 2021!

At this virtual seminar, Alumni TIES participants will have an opportunity to connect and network with international exchange and TechCamp alumni; receive training and mentorship on skills and tools fundamental to media literacy education; and increase their knowledge of media literacy and countering disinformation. Additionally, participants will have the chance to apply for small grants that support innovative strategies to promote and strengthen media literacy.

If you'd like to expand your knowledge and skills in media literacy, learn how to effectively counter disinformation, and build a foundation for mentorship, networking, and partnerships in media literacy, this is the opportunity for you.

The deadline to apply is December 23, 2020. Selected participants will be notified on January 25, 2021.
